Foreword

The 1966 White Pine has 172 pages of pictures and stories, but this is hardly enough to adequately record our final, fabulous year at CHS. To do justice to those 185 days of classes, report cards, Pine Needles, activities, games, victories, defeats, happiness, sorrow, ecstasy, and gloom would take a volume ten times this size.

Our year has been wonderful. We've had a good time, and we've accomplished much. We have had outstanding scholars, athletes, speakers, and musicians. Our class projects, the play and the post prom, were great successes. We are proud of our achievements, and hope that our annual will pay tribute to them.

The White Pine is also a tribute to the administration and underclassmen, for they have helped create the story of our year. We hope that somewhere in this annual every person at CHS will find some personal memory of 1966. But we can only provide an outline, the theme is for you to complete.

Dedication

It is with great pride that we dedicate our edition of The White Pine to Miss Avis Setnes, guidance counselor.

Miss Setnes has been the counselor for the class of 1966 for three years. For college bound seniors, her help in selecting a school was invaluable. For others she has advised and arranged special vocational training. For all of us she has been helpful, understanding, and, above all interested in each student and his future. A conference with Miss Setnes never ends without sound, sincere advice that inspires and encourages her advisees.

As adviser for the student council Miss Setnes has shown her interest in students' welfare. Under her leadership the student council has been active, forceful, and truly representative of the entire student body.

The seniors who had Miss Setnes for a homeroom teacher in seventh grade remember her with special affection. We remember the lively atmosphere of her class room, her sense of humor, and the way she helped us over our fears as "scared" seventh graders.

Miss Setness has been a special friend to our class. She came to CHS when we did and now as we leave we would like to honor her. We hope that this dedication can express the gratitude, admiration, and affection we have for her.

We, As Seniors, Have Left Impressions

Contemplation . . . that which confuses the mind.
Left to wonder, we wishfully dream of past, present, and future.

The teen-age world is one crowded with strife.
We live with constant, depression-filled problems which often remain unsolved.

Across the barriers of humanity,

Across the barriers of humanity, we struggle in the churning river of thought
That river which is filled with the tears of life . . .
often its surging water overflow.

The forest of generations of tradition and environment is methodically planned.
Most of its trails are of a set pattern . . . few left to chance.

Over the mountain of hope is a better life.
But only He can help us across the cracks and crevices of desperation.

The volcanic eruption of a different philosophy
burns the mind.
Aflame with new-found aspirations, we face this holocaust of a world.

I wish there were some way of describing the personality and feelings of the class of 1966. Other classes might have been more scholarly, more athletic, more sentimental, but few could have been less stereotyped than the class of '66.

We had our share of scholars, including two National Merit Finalists. Our athletes produced eight winning records out of eleven sports in our senior year. But the distinguishing characteristic of our class is that it is composed of 230 individuals. When properly inspired their accomplishments have been most impressive—a great prom, an unbeatable post-prom, two excellent class plays.

To us, CHS is something very special. It's been the center of our lives and has made us what we are. Here we learned and forgot, were bored to death and had the most fun, succeeded and failed. We're the largest class in CHS history, but not for long. In a few years our records will be broken, our faces almost forgotten. Then our abilities will start to pay off and CHS will recall us again—the individuals in the class of 1966. As class president, may I wish all my classmates all the best in the years to come. To CHS, thanks for some wonderful years. We'll never forget you.

On Teachers . . . On Organizations . . .

September, 1960, an apprehensive seventh grade class and an equally anxious teacher were introduced to a new school setting and to one another. Both were overwhelmed and frightened with the seeming bigness of Cloquet High School. It was the year in which some members of this senior class proved to their English-Social Studies teacher that they could learn about American History in spite of the teacher. Too frequently she was reminded by Tom and Tom of the ACTUAL facts concerning American History.

In the years that followed our relationship was somewhat altered. No longer were you dependent on me as a teacher. Now it was I looking to you for your faith and trust in me. I solicited your confidence in me and you responded positively to this very novice counselor. You accepted me well in my new position. You made me feel that I was essential even at times when I REALLY wasn't needed.

You will leave; I will remain. And with me will linger a certain emptiness that will be filled not only with the recollection of your many kind gestures toward me, personally, but also with many memories of a very fine senior class.

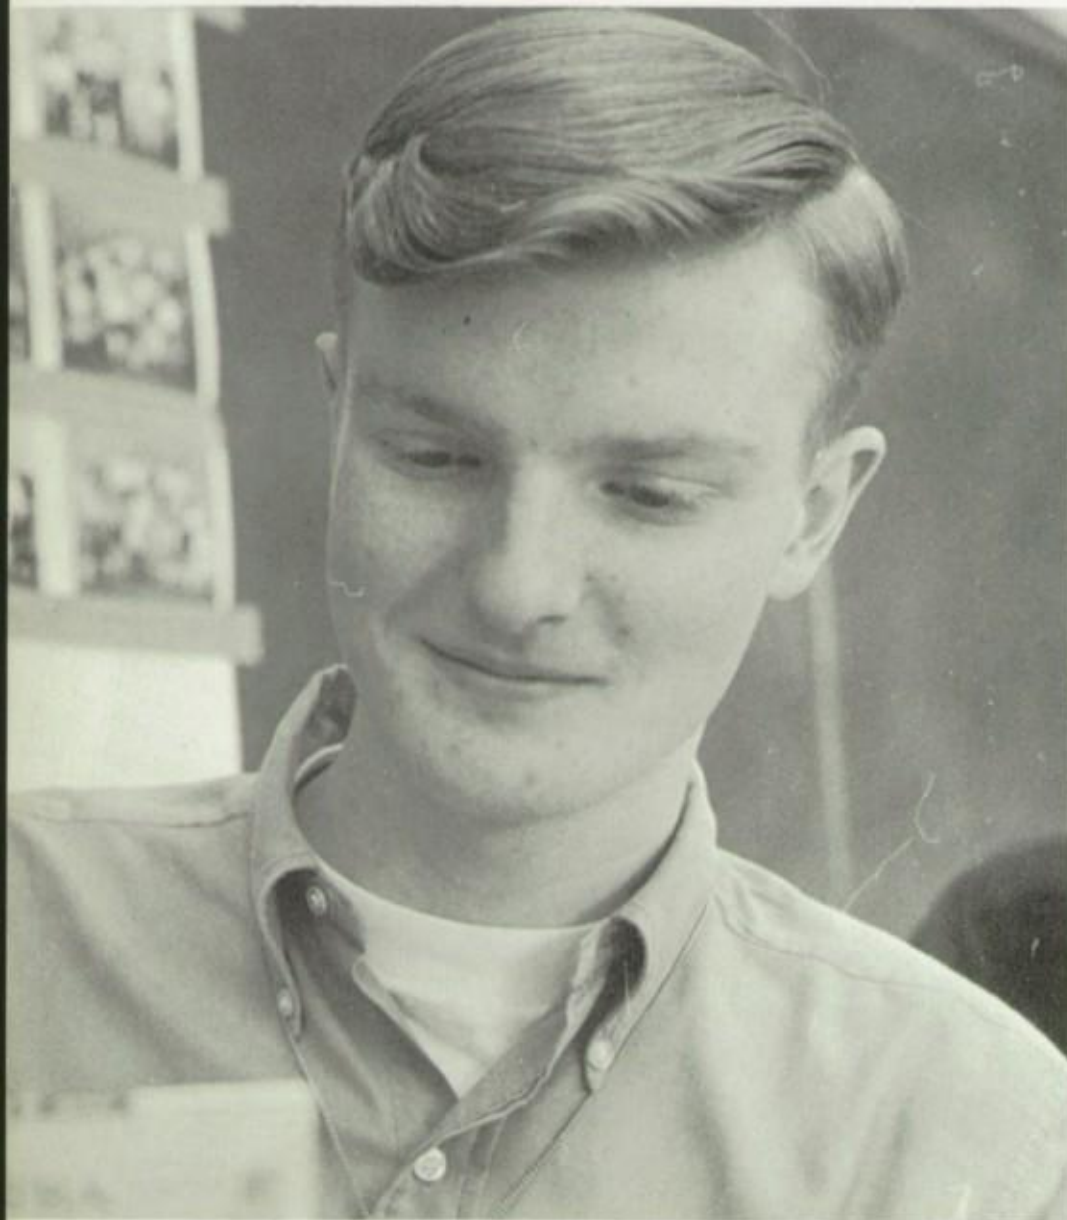

"Action in activities" is a phrase which accurately describes our class's participation for the last four years. When it came time to put on a play or decorate for the prom or post-prom, the class of '66 united and worked together to make the event a success.

The fast action in sports brought us seniors out to cheer our way through many a football, basketball, and hockey game. The traditional action of the CHS Homecoming made the gym come alive with excitement. We seniors rushed madly around the school day after day, involved in a flurry of activities. But all of this hard work paid off when we opened that issue of the Pine Needle (hot off the presses!), waltzed dreamily at the Sno-Ball, got a silver "C" or screamed and yelled with delight on kid day.

But now the action of the Class of '66 has faded away and remains only as a score of beautiful memories of happy high school days. Our senior parties, Kid Day and the Senior Banquet will always be highlights from the past. Now the action for the seniors of '66 lies in the future, and who knows what it holds!

On Music . . . On Sports . . .

The mournful wails of the Rolling Stones echoing over the din of conversation in the cafeteria at noon, the happy sound of "Big Fat Alice" filling the second floor after school, the close harmony of the choir in a Bach anthem, the snapping cadence of the band as it moves so rapidly down Cloquet Avenue—all of these are a part of music at Cloquet High School.

We, as seniors, have marched in a championship band, have sung with the Madrigals as they won their eighth consecutive first place rating in State-Regional competition, and have performed such works as "Camelot" in Pop Concerts with the orchestra.

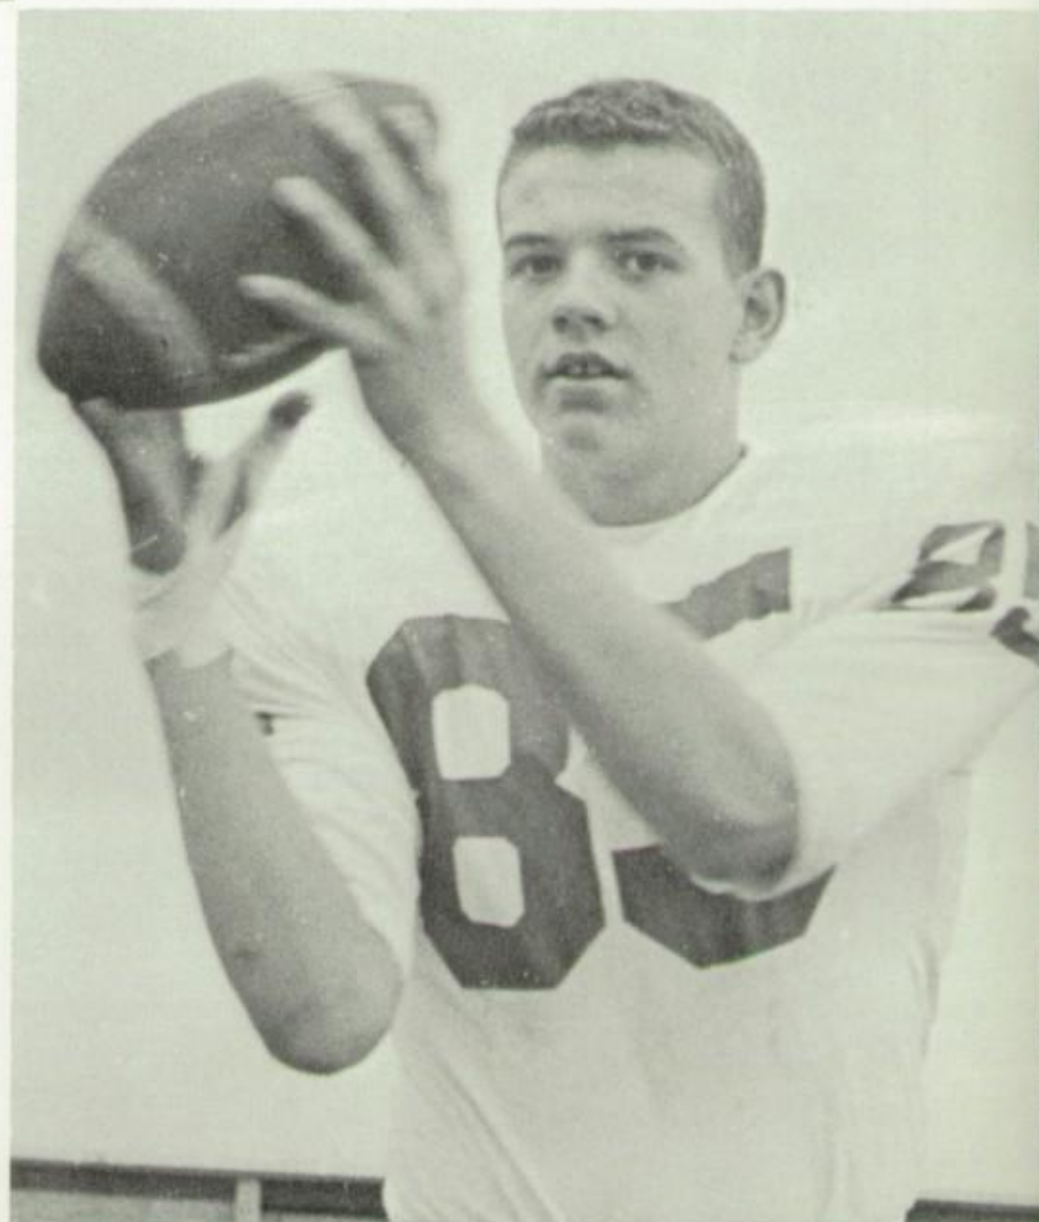

However, music has also played a much more everyday role in our lives as seniors. We have heard an extremely wide variety of music, ranging from the heralded message of the Messiah to the blues of Brownie McGhee and Sonny Terry to the crash of "Miserlou" as played by Jay and the Impacts.

These and many others have gone together to form the memories which we will have of music at Cloquet High School.

We as seniors have left impressions upon sports. The determination, sweat, and tears needed to make a team are characteristic of our fine CHS teams. Constant running after school and doing those last wind sprints make our teams champions.

The State Ski Championship three out of four years is to be treasured by these hard working boys. Their endless packing of trails and landings helped to make our facilities and our team the best. The impressive record left in football and basketball leave no more to be desired. Our swimming team had the best year ever, and sent five seniors to the state meet. Riflers shot their way to fourth place in the state, and hockey skated to a good year. Baseball, tennis, golf, and track added many victories to their fine records.

The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat make us better men and women. These experiences, which develop good sportmanship by the friendly handshake of another boy or girl, mean much to us as seniors. They will never be forgotten.

On Activities . . . On Publications

We've had it. We've had cooperation, we've had imagination, but above all, we've had spirit! There has been a special pride, a spark in the work on our Prom, Post-Prom, and Sno-Ball, and we've gained a great amount of satisfaction, learned a few lessons, and generally, had a wonderful time. How can we ever forget the doubts, the worries, the work, and the final triumph of our first Prom? It was wonderful, and special, and most of all—ours.

The Sno-Ball wound up the gay holiday season with a bang. As we stood back with the last ornament on the tree, the last sno-flake hung, there was a mutual feeling of excitement and pride. When we arrived that evening—all mistakes hidden, all in place, we knew every moment of work was worthwhile.

Before we realize it, the Prom time had rolled around once more. For us, it was our last, and we made up our minds it would be one of the best. The armory seemed awfully bare and big, but by that final Saturday night it was a splash of calypso color, complete with straw hats to wear and straw hut for the band. Now, we have only the pictures and wonderful memories. I know I will never forget the work, the fun, the satisfaction our class has experienced this year. It's been truly rewarding.

Chances are that if you were in the school during the early evening, late at night, or on a weekend, the lights in Room 210 were still on, and you heard a strange mixture of voices, jazz, and typewriters. The Cloquet High School Journalists were at work producing newspapers and a yearbook.

Kewpie Jensen headed the staff of this annual. The book features beautiful colored division pages and unusual plaid covers. The work that went into this annual is beyond the comprehension of all but the editor, the staff, and the adviser. Innumerable pictures, captions, headlines, and stories had to be handled systematically. Advertising and business sales to the classes were the responsibilities of the two capable managers, Linda Kallstrom and Sue Wilson.

Editing the school paper, "The Pine Needle" was a rewarding and challenging experience for me. As sports editor, Tim Lovain shared my responsibilities. We produced eleven issues this year and placed special emphasis on creative writing and editorials. New this year was my weekly column in the Vidette, "First Person Singular" which also covered the school news. Cindee Johnson and I wrote feature stories for the Duluth Herald Teen Page.

ADMINISTRATION - FACULTY

The Board of Education

Representing the wishes of the citizens of Cloquet, our school board does much to further educational opportunities in the community. The members work many long hours, and without such a public-minded group, our Cloquet school system would not be so well organized and efficient.

One of the school board's major projects this year was the proposed new high school and winter sports arena. Their duties also include the purchasing of textbooks and other educational facilities and the hiring of teachers.

Superintendent

W. A. GESSNER
B.S., St. Cloud State College
M.A., University of Minnesota

The superintendent of schools is the man behind the scenes whose main objective is to ensure the best education facilities with an adequate faculty. Although the students don't see him often, they are assured he is making every effort towards the success of our school system. Mr. Gessner is this man, and the student body is grateful for all his efforts.

Principal

FREDERICK WOLNER
B.A., Macalester College
M.A., University of Minnesota

Mr. Wolner, our principal, is a friend to every student. He is always willing to lend a hand in student activities. He's best known to the students as the man who dismisses us from our pep fests, but this is only a grain in the mountain of his tasks. We are proud and happy to call him our principal.

Administrative Assistant

Assistant Superintendent

OLIVER E. HOYUM

B.S. and M.A., University of Minnesota

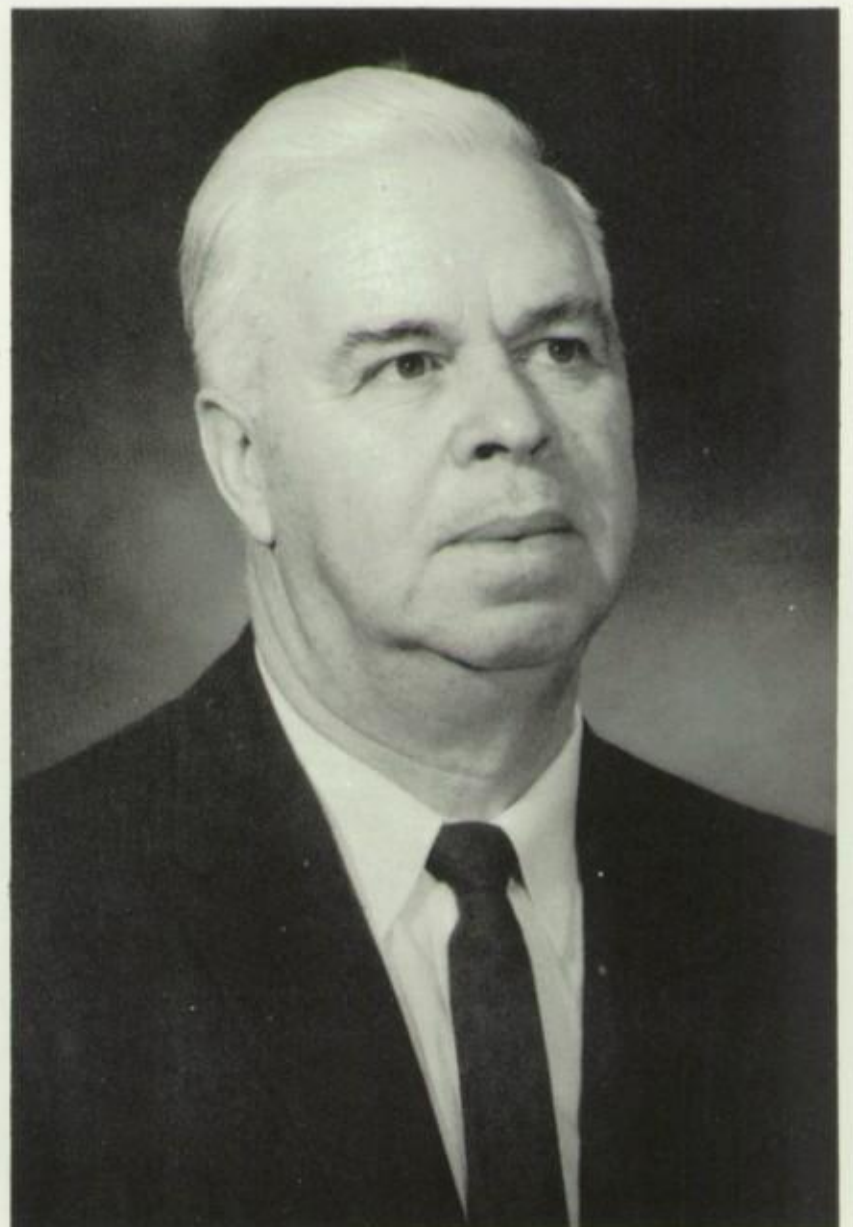

Mr. Hoyum, as Mr. Gessner's assistant, carries many of the responsibilities of the high school. He is best known for his English standardized tests, which are given to all Cloquet High School students, but he also serves as the elementary school curriculum coordinator, supervisor of adult evening classes, and a math and English consultant. Mr. Hoyum was also the originator of rifle at Cloquet High School.

Assistant Principal

NICK WEISS

B.A., Superior State

Mr. Weiss, who serves as principal of the junior high school, has many other duties and responsibilities. He supervises the 7th, 8th, and 9th grade students, advises their activities, schedules their classes, and heads the jr. high teachers. Mr. Weiss also is in charge of all activities at Jefferson.

Secretaries Assist Administrators

RUTH JOHNSON

Secretaries in the administrative offices do countless jobs which are essential to a smooth running school. They serve behind the scenes, keeping the paperwork of the school organized. They sell lunch tickets, make out checks, write letters, and copy grade transcripts.

Miss Johnson and Mrs. Stolberg work in Mr. Wolner's office. The superintendent's office is staffed by Mrs. Maunu, Mrs. Peterson, and Mrs. Hongisto. Mrs. Lisignoli serves in Mr. Weiss's office, Mrs. Eklund in the Counselors' office and Mrs. Angst, in the library.

Cooks and Custodians—Service with A Smile

Mrs. Turner

It has often been said that young people fail to appreciate the services of others, but CHS students realize the indispensable tasks the cooks and custodians perform for us. The custodians keep the school clean, warm, and comfortable at all times. They are always willing to help with students' projects such as plays and dances. Friendly, courteous service and delicious, well-balanced meals are the cooks' contribution to our comfortable school.

Memories Are Made of This

Pygmalion, The Night Before Christmas, the Sno-ball and Homecoming coronation were a few of the memories students will keep of 1965-66. These pictures remind us of Santa and his equally joyous companion, the slightly irregular school attire for Clash Day, and other sights and sounds that were a part of our year.

Rotarians Honor Nine Senior Boys

Each month of the school year a selection committee from Rotary chooses an outstanding senior boy to attend their meetings. It is an honor to be chosen, and an outstanding experience for those who are.

Each Junior Rotarian attends four Tuesday noon meetings. At his first meeting he is introduced to the group by one of the Senior Rotarians. After four meetings of getting acquainted with the Rotarians and learning the purpose and procedures of their Club, he gives a short talk on his experience at Rotary.

The nine boys chosen this year also took over and ran a meeting in May. Charlie Jensen served as president and called for impromptu speeches from several members. Entertainment for the Senior Rotarians was provided by Dow Jones and the Industrials, the Junior Rotarian's band.

Active Student Council

Under the leadership of Miss Avis Setnes, Council Adviser, and Neil Lavick, Council President, the Student Council had an active year. The Council again sponsored the concession stand, the annual Christmas Program, a patriotic program, the American Field Service Fund, and the Student Council Scholarship.

This year's Student Council was also a council of firsts. It was the first council to hold an open meeting, and the first to buy Representative Buttons. It initiated the Pledge of Allegiance for the student body and put out a monthly events calendar.

Although this year has had its ups and downs, the many accomplishments and successes have overshadowed the disappointments. This year's council has much to be proud of.

Honor Society Induction Recognizes

Arranging before the ceremony.

On Thursday, May 12, twenty-two seniors and thirteen juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. This honor is based not only on scholarship, but also on leadership, service, and character. Each year a maximum of five per cent of the junior class and fifteen per cent of the senior class are chosen for membership.

The thirteen seniors who were inducted as juniors last year conducted the ceremony before an audience of both students and parents. Laurie Brattlof, Mistress of Ceremonies, introduced Linda Turtinen and Linda Kallstrom, who began the program with a vocal duet. The qualifications for membership were then explained. Linda Kaner spoke on scholarship; Harold Shimmin, on character; Kathleen Jensen, on leadership; and Judy Pastika, on service. New members were presented with pins and certificates, and Sue Wilson administered the oath. The program concluded with a flute duet by Barb Nygard and Gloria Strand.

Hospitality Club Ushers and Serves

With a friendly smile, the members of the Hospitality Club welcomed you to many of the Cloquet High School sponsored events. The ability to meet and converse easily with people is a trait necessary for membership in the club.

Wearing white blazers, red sweaters, and black skirts, the senior girls ushered for such events as parent-teacher conferences, basketball games, choir, band, and orchestra concerts, speech meets, and the synchronized swimming show. The helpful ushers collected tickets, handed out programs, and often showed you the best place to sit.

One-Act Plays Finance Speech Classes' Trip

"Hillbilly High Jinks" cast: Row 1: Beth Stolberg, Nancy Gamache, Doots Abraham, Gerry Agnew,

The three speech classes taught by Mr. Penner had an active year of extracurricular activities. On Saturday, April 16, they journeyed to St. Paul to see two theatre productions as a part of their study of drama. They saw "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" and "Visions of Sugar Plums." To finance this trip, the classes each produced a one-act play and presented it on Friday, April 22.

First hour presented "Egad, What a Cad." This melodrama which was directed by Nancy Nelson and Pat Rizzi, concerned the actions of heroine Pam Stillwell and her attempts to discover her lost past. Larry Fosgate as the villain and Mike Fortune as the hero added complications.

"She Was Only a Farmer's Daughter" was the delightful melodrama presented by the fourth hour directed by Jeff Bergin and Judy Kozacik. Heroine Marianne Heine and Hero Steve Sjoblad conquered the evil villain Steve Olson.

The fifth hour speech class, under the direction of Marilyn Klemovich and Janet Thomas, presented the comedy "Hillbilly High Jinks." In this play Blossom Maxwell, played by Nancy Gamache tried to maneuver Zeke Pawson (Doots Abraham) to propose to Pliney Runner, an elderly spinster (Gail Mills).

“Fantasy” Is One-Act Play

Cloquet's entrant to the District One-Act Play Contest in Two Harbors on January 22 was “Fantasy on an Empty Stage,” directed by Mrs. Beverly Skoglund, assisted by Buff Benson, student director.

The leading roles of Nichol and Silvette, estranged lovers, were taken by Craig Burcalow and Pat Rizzi while Dave Nielson portrayed the playwright Mike, Steve Vaillant his friend Jim, Jeff Bergin the butler, and Tim Jollymore the stagehand.

At the District Contest, Tim Jollymore received an honorable mention while the play itself was ranked high among the contest acts. It was presented once more to senior high audiences on February 3, and was well received.

Seniors Present Shaw's

The transformation of Eliza Doolittle from a "guttersnipe" into a member of London society of 1912 set the plot for this year's Senior Class Play, Pygmalion. George Bernard Shaw's famous play of heredity vs. environment was presented by the seniors to capacity audiences on November 18 and 19. Mrs. Ruth Anderson, director, was assisted by Nancy Nelson, student director.

Judy Kozacik, as Eliza the Cockney flower girl, was taken from the gutter and put into high society as an experiment by speech professor Henry Higgins (Jeff Bergin) and his partner in the bet Colonel Pickering (Tim Jollymore). Judy Pastika as Mrs. Pearce, Higgins' housekeeper, and Tom Hanson as Alfred Doolittle, Eliza's father, provided a few conflicts and many laughs along the way. Eliza's tests in her new environment were given by Higgins' sophisticated mother, Mrs. Higgins (Mary Marshall), her maid (Marilyn Klemovich), and the fashionable but poor Eynsford-Hills (Pat Rizzi, Buff Benson, and Tim Lovain). Setting the opening scene in Covent Garden were bystanders rich and poor. They included Tom Gillespie, Neil Lavick, Laurie Brattlof, Kathleen Jensen, Teresa Randelin, Gary Bodie, Ken Young, Larry Anderson, and Phil Fernjack.

The actors' English accents, elaborate costumes, plus the beautiful settings all helped to create the realistic atmosphere of Pygmalion. The backstage crew worked overtime to make this perfection possible. Committee chairmen included: business manager, Phil Fernjack, assisted by Larry Anderson; properties, Janice Reed; stage crew, Mickey Maslowski; lights, Dave Peterson; sound, Larry Larsen; posters and art, Cheryl Edwards; publicity, Linda Turtinen; make-up, Kathy Hulten; costumes, Teresa Randelin; and programs, Gloria Golden.

Mr. Penner checks plans with Lighting Manager Phil Joseph and Student Director Faith Spurlin.

On March 31 and April 1, the junior class presented "The Mouse That Roared" to large and enthusiastic audiences. The play, under the direction of Mr. Penner and student director Faith Spurlin, revolved around the attempt of the tiny Duchy of Grand Fenwick to obtain financial help. It was discovered that the country's famous wine export, Pinot Grand Fenwick, was being cheaply imitated by a U.S. firm. Duchess Gloriana played by LeAnn Weather-son and her advisers Count Mountjoy, played by Harold Bassett, and David Benter, played by Rodger Salmi decided that the only honorable course of action was to declare war on the U.S. Expecting defeat and prompt U.S. reparations, problems soon developed when Tully Bascom, played by Larry Johnson, was sent with his expedition of longbowmen to invade New York City. By coincidence the city was having an air raid test. Not only did Tully and his crew invade, but they took prisoners and captured the famous Dr. Kokintz, played by Gordy Ahlgren, and his powerful Q-bomb. With this turn of events, the situation for Glorianna and her subjects became even more complicated and very entertaining.

The cast, along with committees and directors, combined their talents and energy to make "The Mouse That Roared" a delightful and successful production.

Roared to Junior Class Play

Large crowds and a large cast and crew contributed to the success of "The Mouse That Roared." Other members of the cast included Dick Kunz, Dale Randelin, Barb Maslowski, Lea Kyllonen, Mary Hovanec, Cheryl MacConnachie, Kathy Walsh, Ann Gullion, Renee Rustvold, Marilyn Jensen, Chris Hella, Kathy Lindstrom, Steve Morrison, Pam Stillwell, Sue Oswell, Kathy Lamminen, Steve Sjoblad, Charmaine Fortune, Sue Medes, Cheryl Roe, Dennie Eknes, Jean Langenbrunner, Darrol Mason, Pete Polga, Randy Rimstad, Greg Mangan, Bruce Plante, Curt Gullickson, and Kim Jenkins.

Committee chairmen worked under Committee Coordinator Linda Esala. Chairmen were Penny Branham, programs; Debbie Lawrence, make-up; Ted Evers, set; Bob Oswold, sound; Jacque Anderson, costumes; Phil Joseph, lights; Curt Gullickson, tickets; Melanie Bergeron, props; Sue Johnson, publicity; and Gerry Agnew and Kathy Weedman, prompters.

Debate Successes Count Up

Tips for Tim from coach Mr. Penner.

The CHS debate program completed another successful season under the able direction of Mr. Penner. The topic for the year was a mouthful: "Resolved: that the Federal Government should adopt a program of compulsory arbitration of labor-management disputes in basic industries."

Sixteen students participated in debate this year, debating one hundred-sixty-one hours in thirteen tournaments. The total record for all debaters was 72-89.

The A-team turned in a 36-30 record. The affirmative team, composed of seniors Tim Lovain and Neil Lavick had a 21-11 mark, while the negative team of seniors Harold Shimmin and John Tamminen finished with a 15-19 mark. Sophomore Lyndin Foss also saw extensive duty. The A-team captured third place in the Varsity Division at the Macalester Debate Tournament and third place at the NFL Tournament at Detroit Lakes.

Debaters travelled to Gustavus Adolphus, St. Cloud State, South St. Paul, Brainerd, and Superior State in other major tournaments.

All four A-team members will be graduating and only one junior will be returning next year, but experienced debaters among the sophomores should provide a solid nucleus for the next two years.

Speech Force Gains Momentum

The extra-curricular speech program was greatly expanded this year under the able direction of Mr. Abalon and Mr. Lykins. About thirty students participated by attending the practice meets held throughout the year in various district schools. Weeks of work were climaxed in competition sponsored by the Duluth Rotary in February.

A very successful year was concluded at the District 26 tournament held at Denfeld High School in Duluth. There three Cloquet speakers advanced to the finals and all three qualified for Region 7 competition. Representing Cloquet at the Regionals in Brainerd were Tim Jollymore in serious interpretation and Tim Lovain and Harold Shimmin in extemporaneous speaking.

Tim Lovain won the regionals and went to the State.

Dramatists, Speakers, and Debaters

The annual NFL-Dramatics Society banquet was held on Saturday, May 28, at the Zion Lutheran Church. NFL advisors, Mr. Lykins and Mr. Penner, and Dramatics Society advisor, Mrs. Anderson, were in charge of the banquet. Mr. Abalan, extra-curricular speech advisor, served as the witty toastmaster. Speakers for the evening included Mr. Wolner, Mr. Lykins, Tim Lovain, President of NFL and Tim Jollymore, President of the Dramatics Society.

Linda Turtinen Edits Pine Needle

Editor, Linda Turtinen.

The distribution of the Cloquet High School paper, The Pine Needle, is a highlight of the busy school routine. This year's paper, edited by Linda Turtinen under the direction of George Gillespie, kept students informed on the latest news, sports, and controversies at C.H.S.

The thirty member staff prepared eleven issues of The Pine Needle, including three six-page editions. News reporters enjoyed seeing their work in print, and many staff members also did creative and feature writing for the paper.

Journalists, including staff members of both The White Pine and The Pine Needle, attended a workshop at Bemiji in October and the Minnesota High School Press Convention on the campus of the University of Minnesota in March.

White Pine Records Best of Years

Editor, Kathleen Jensen

The seniors on the White Pine staff headed by editor Kathleen Jensen and adviser George Gillespie have combined hard work and new ideas to make the 1966 White Pine the best ever. Artists Kathy Kunze and Cheryl Edwards have added the "Lumberjack" plaid cover and cartoon end sheets. Advertising manager Linda Kallstrom headed a successful campaign for advertisements from local businesses, and business manager Sue Wilson directed the sale of books and collection of payments.

The staff worked many week-ends and vacations to produce a book which they hope will provide memories of 1966 for every student at C.H.S.

Presents Four Concerts

Director Andrew Pappas and the Senior High Band completed a memorable year performing a record number of concerts.

The Winter Concert featured special entertainment. Laurie Brattlof and Cheryl MacConnachie danced to the selection "Matador" and Laurie Russ and LeAnn Weatherson were accompanied by the band as they sang "How the Blues Began." The band also performed their Winter Concert at Esko High School.

High-spirited enthusiasm followed the band to the District basketball tournament where they presented the half-time show "Contrasts in Music."

The Spring Concert was held in the auditorium. Lighting effects were used for the featured number "Mary Poppins." At this concert Harold Shimmin was presented the Arion Award. The band journeyed to Coleraine the next day to present their concert there.

At the Spring Banquet, the Jack Sampson Band Parents scholarship was presented to Barb Nygard.

At the District Band Contest held at U.M.D. Barb Nygard, Marianne Heine, Mickey Levinski, and Anita Stahl received "A" ratings. Marianne and Mickey also received "A" ratings at the State Band Contest.

Show Talent

The Cloquet High School Majorettes under the supervision of Miss Stienhaus and leadership of head majorette Marilyn Klemovich added sparkle and zest to band shows and parades.

Their football performances gave lasting memories to such numbers as "Hello Dolly," "Cherokee," and Marilyn's fire baton to "Prince Igor." They also performed at home basketball games and tournaments.

Pep and color were added to the band as the majorettes headed parades through Port Arther, Fort William, Duluth, Bemiji, and Cloquet.

The 1966 Majorettes, were seniors Teresa Randelin, Karen Bjerkness, and Mary Engdahl and junior Karen Asproth.

Senior Orchestra

Senior French Horn players Karen Bjerckness and Mary Matteson.

"Camelot" and other selections contributed to the success of this year's orchestra Pop Concert. The Spring Concert was highlighted by a number for piano and orchestra entitled "Dialog" featuring Linda Turtinen on piano. Under the direction of Mr. Donald Niemi, the string section and many band members rehearsed two days a week to produce the very successful annual concerts.

Several members of the orchestra were selected to attend the string clinic held at Ordean Jr. High School where they practiced under a guest director during the day and presented a concert in the evening. Barb Nygard, Cheryl Edwards, Kathy Lamminen, and Dan Kromm were also members of the Duluth Junior Symphony under the direction of Mr. Herman Hertz.

A string quartet composed of Marilyn Jensen, Sandra Fish, Faith Spurlin, and David Obst and a piano trio composed of Marilyn Jensen, David Obst, and Eliza Hella recieved superior district ratings and went on to regional competition.

Under the direction of Mr. Donald Schroeder, the two senior high choirs experienced an inspiring and rewarding year. Their first concert was the annual Christmas Concert. With the Girls' Choir "Wishing a Merry Christmas," the Mixed Choir featuring "Twas the Night Before Christmas," and the Madrigals singing season favorites, all attending were drawn closer in Christmas spirit.

At the Pop Concert, performed in combination with the Orchestra, the choirs sang around folk song and Civil War themes. Songs included were "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" and "Greenfields."

The final choral performance in the spring included numbers from various musical periods. The Mixed Choir's favorite was "Blessing, Glory, and Wisdom," and Marian Eklund accompanied the Girl's Choir on "Let's Go Fly a Kite."

Elected as officers for the Mixed Choir were Pat Rizzi, President; Sue Aalto, Secretary; and Nancy Nelson, Librarian. Section leaders were Linda Turtinen, Soprano; Margie Bailey, Alto; Curt Gullickson, Tenor; and Wayne Fjalstad, Bass. Cheryl Edwards, Mary Hovanec, and Carol Sloan led the Girl's Choir as President, Secretary, and Librarian respectively.

The Madrigals and soloist Faith Spurlin received "A" ratings in both the District and Regional-State music contests.

Bonnie, Herr Johnson, and Lucy tackle a difficult problem.

The foreign language program has always held the interest of students at CHS. The German Club, headed by Chris Hella, President; Jim Minkinen, Vice-President, and Larry Oswald, Secretary-Treasurer; has proved to be helpful and well-supported. Under the guidance of Herr Johnson, students have studied German through conversations, reading and movies.

Money was earned by selling ice cream bars at basketball games. The highlight of the German year was the annual "Deutsch Tanz," which was held on Saturday, February 26. It turned out a success, and another is planned for next year.

German students spent a very worthwhile year in the program. It offered a valuable education and an unusual learning experience.

Spanish Club Sponsors Annual

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Senor Gordon Nelson, had a busy year in spite of the forced cancellation of their ski trip.

The main activity of the club was the annual dance. This year's theme, "Viva La Fiesta," was characterized by sombreros, fans, and maracas.

In connection with Pan American Day, the Spanish Club held a special meeting at which several members gave reports on the history, the purpose, and the accomplishments of Pan American Day.

Any present or former Spanish student in grades 9-12 was eligible to join the Spanish Club. The officers were Judy Pastika, President; Candy McFall, Vice-President; Evon Jensen, Secretary; and Cherie Soderbloom, Treasurer.

Active F.T.A. Group

The purpose of the F.T.A. is to inform its members about the teaching profession. Miss Scheidler, adviser, and Laurie Brattlof, president, led the club in a very active year. Throughout the year guest speakers informed the group of educational opportunities and aids. Members of the group also worked for teachers as typists and aids.

In the fall the group conducted a book fair. Around Thanksgiving time the members furnished a basket of food for a needy area family. Other events included a well attended dance, a spring trip to Superior, and a tea.

"For we are the builders of homes, homes for America's future..." Under the direction of President Gloria Golden, the Future Homemakers of America opened each meeting with this pledge of their duties and responsibilities. Assisting Gloria were Vice President, Janet Brendiar; Secretary-Treasurer, Linda Parks; and Historians, Carol Newby and Penny Branham.

F.H.A. events for the year included Cotton Day and the style show and dance connected with it. At a special meeting open to the entire student body, Reverend Pearson gave a talk on teenage morals.

The Annual F.H.A. Mother-Daughter Tea was the club's final event. At the tea, pins were awarded and new officers installed. Because of his service to the club, Mr. Gillespie was made an honorary member. This is the first time such an honor has been awarded to a male teacher in our school.

Advisors Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson and Miss Ring-smuth led the club in a very enjoyable worthwhile year.

Audio-Visual Club Aids in the Classroom

Seniors Larry Fosgate, Harold Shimmin, and Wayne Fjalstad with Mr. Melancon.

The members of the audio visual service group, which is directed by Mr. Henry Melancon, work with film projectors, the opaque projector, tape recorders, and the film splicer. The boys receive their training from Mr. Melancon and give their service in convocations, classrooms, and class plays. Because of their abilities we are able to benefit from many excellent movies and programs.

Mr. Melancon repairs equipment, checks and orders films, and services the grade schools. He is always handy if one of the boys runs into trouble with the operation of a machine.

The work the Audio Visual Club does for our school is invaluable, and is greatly appreciated.

Future Nurses Learn And Serve

The Future Nurses met every other Tuesday during the school year to study and explore the field of nursing. Under the leadership of officers Rosanne Trygg, President; Cheryl Roe, Secretary; Sherri Kemi, Treasurer; and their new advisor Mrs. Norma Bayard, they had an active year. At their meetings, they viewed movies on first aid and the ship Hope. As a service project at Christmas, they each gave a gift to a special county welfare child. Although several of their projects were unsuccessful, they still had an active and prosperous year.

Buff Benson, vice-president; Bonnie Meisner, president; Miss Steinhaus, advisor; Mary Hovanec, secretary; Barb Maslowski, treasurer.

Under Miss Steinhaus's direction, the Senior High Pep Club had a very successful year. Officers of the club were Bonnie Meisner, president; Buff Benson, vice-president; Mary Hovanec, secretary; and Barb Maslowski, treasurer.

One of the first of many Pep Club events was the bonfire held in Pinehurst Park, and the procession led by the band to the football game. Parents' Night was held during both the football and basketball seasons in honor of the players' parents.

During basketball season, some of the members sold ice cream bars to raise money for the All-Athletic Homecoming. The Pep Club worked especially hard to make the Homecoming convocation, coronation, and dance a great success.

With the club's accumulated funds, a rifle for the Rifle Club and purple and white striped sweaters for the cheerleaders were purchased.

Foxies Trot At Monthly Meetings

Mr. Buytaert, Miss VanHallbeck, Del Prevost, and Susan Lumppio select the next record.

"Chances Are" if you had gone by the Washington School on a certain Thursday evening each month, you would have been able to hear the sophomores holding their Foxy Trotters dance meetings. This year in addition to the traditional fox trot, Mr. Buytaert, the advisor, also taught them the Charleston, jitterbug and cha-cha.

The first of three special meetings was a "Barn Dance." For the second, they invited those juniors who had been members the previous year.

The final meeting was held on May 26, and was a dress-up affair. Novelties of the meeting were dance programs, contests, awards, and a special trophy for Mr. Buytaert. It was a fun ending to a most enjoyable year.

Every Wednesday night after school the members of the Girls' Bowling League hurried to the Evergreen Lanes for bowling. Mr. Paul Kranz, owner of the alleys, was instructor for the group.

Officers were chosen at the beginning of the season. Those elected were Barb Setterquist, President; Patti Harper, Treasurer; and Lee Ann Bassett, Secretary. Teams were chosen and given such names as the "Gutterballs," "Strikers," and "Gins." Each team played a different opponent every Wednesday. The highest score of the season, a 221, was rolled by Barb Setterquist.

Twenty-eight Vocational Trainees

KAREN HILL is the vocational trainee assigned to the Vocational Coordinator's office as Mr. Chinnock's secretary. Her duties include preparation of the correspondence, duplication of instruction material, keeping of student records, and acting as receptionist.

The Vocational Trainees under the direction of Mr. Edward Chinnock, Vocational Coordinator, organized the Vocational Training Club early in September.

The twenty-eight students selected an executive board consisting of Bill McIntyre, President; Peggy Bernicke, Vice-President; Jennie Borin, Secretary; Karen Bjerkness, Treasurer.

Money collected from dues during the year was used for their traditional bulletin board, their Christmas party, their annual banquet held in the spring, and the remaining money was put forth for yearbook pages.

These trainees have gained experience in how to get along with the people in this world, and also have an idea of what the future can bring to them with their experience or with further study.

Mr. Gordon Allen, personnel manager at the Wood Conversion Company is DARLA ANDERSON'S trainer. She has been called into Mr. Allen's office to take some dictation from him.

JACKIE HAMILTON is learning to be the switchboard operator and receptionist at the Wood Conversion Company under the supervision of Marlene Trettle who was a trainee last year.

Harry Milbberger is GARY JOKELA'S on-the-job instructor as he learns how to mill a bronze plate with a fly cutter in the vertical milling machine at the Northwest Paper Company machine shop.

"Take a letter please." This seems to be the order as BRENDA ILSLEY, trainee at the Leach Elementary School, takes dictation from principal, Mr. Donald Kroneman.

Combine Earning and Learning

The operation of a posting machine has been one of the duties of NANCY MOLSTAD in the office of the Best Oil Company. Her trainer is Mrs. Pat Halvorson.

In the sheet metal shop at the Wood Conversion RICHARD TYPPO'S foreman, Mr. Charles Annis gives him instruction in the operation of a power brake.

MAUREEN WELTER'S trainer is Mr. Edward Maher, Principal of Garfield Elementary School. Preparation of reports is one of the many varied duties which Maureen carries out.

This is the pipe threading machine in the pipe shop at the Northwest Paper Company where PAUL TORMA is the trainee. His immediate supervisor is Mr. Selium Isaacson, working foreman.

VICKI GLEASON'S training station is the Associated Loan Company office. Shown with her is Mr. James Beattie, manager of the office, as they consult the loan card file.

On-The-Job Training Prepares

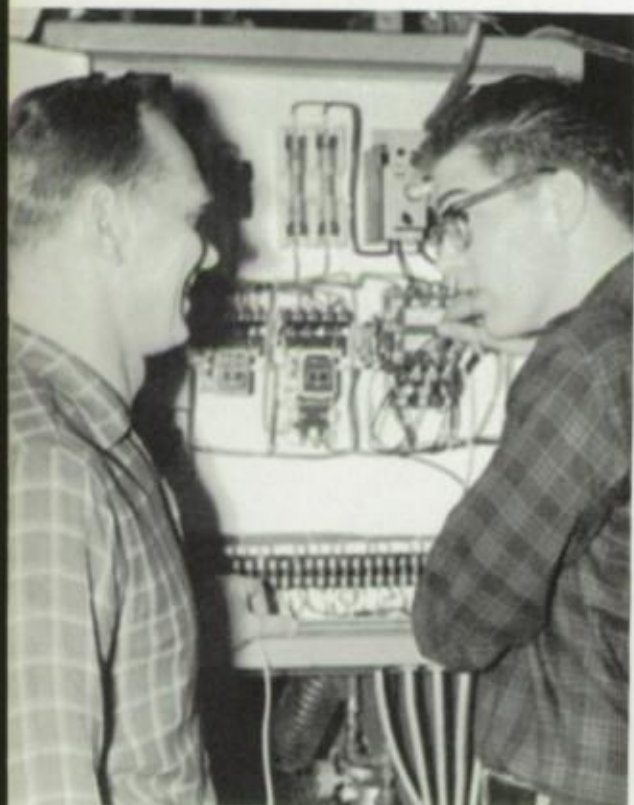

One of the modern trends in present day printing is the use of the versatile offset press, which GARY SOUTHER-TON is shown using at the Northwest Paper Company. Gary's supervisor, Mr. Dean Koski, was himself a student trainee a few years ago.

The teletype machine is the equipment that VICKIE MEGER is learning to operate in the sales department of the Northwest Paper Company. Her supervisor, Mr. Kendall Evenson, is dictating directly as she puts the message on a wire to one of the other sales offices.

GERALD PELOFSKE'S training station is the accounting office of the Diamond Match Corporation, where his trainer is Mr. Dan Winters. They are working on a report which will become part of the data accounting file.

TERRY DEARBORN is working on the wiring of a control panel for a pulp breaker at the Wood Conversion Company. The electric shop is Terry's training station, and his supervisor is Mr. Walter Berset, electrical foreman.

KAREN BJERKNES is this year's trainee in the Industrial Service Department of the Northwest Paper Company, which is the paper mill's personnel department. Mr. Ronald Demars is handing Karen some reports to be typed.

A smile seems to be in order with this work, as JENNIE BORIN receives an assignment from her boss, Mr. Lawrence Cardinal, supervisor of scheduling at the Northwest Paper Company.

These Seniors for the Future

"Read that micrometer right!" This seems to be what Mr. Algot Edin is saying to DENNIS JOHNSON as he is measuring the cut on a bronze bushing he is turning while training in the machine shop at the Wood Conversion Company plant.

PAULETTE CURTIS is learning to operate the Smith-Corona-Marchant Dry Copy Photostat machine under the direction of her trainer, Mr. Dale Ignatius, business manager at the Cloquet Memorial Hospital.

This is the purchasing department of The Northwest Paper Company. Mr. Dave Dinham is CHERYL VAINEO'S trainer and it appears that he has been interrupted by a telephone call as they were discussing some invoices.

PEGGY BERNICKE'S training station is the business office of Raiter Clinic. Here we see Mrs. Fay Newton, business manager, assigning some work to Peggy.

DOROTHY BERG is the office trainee this year at Kortie and Sons. Mrs. Susan Bilich, Dorothy's trainer, was the trainee two years ago. Dorothy will be the trainer as another student enters this office next fall.

Trainees Organize Vocational Club

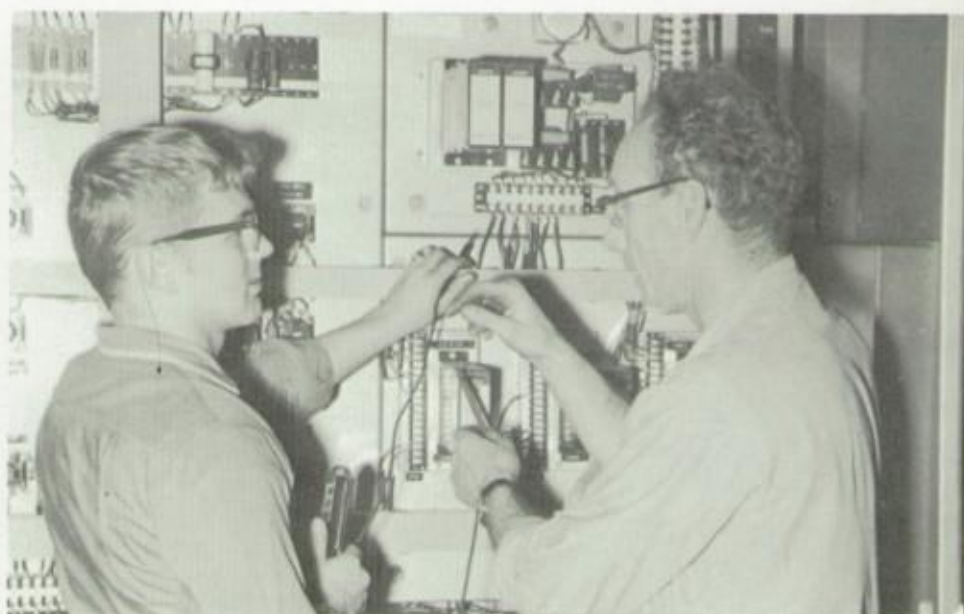

This is the training station in the electrical shop of the Diamond Match plant, where LARRY LERITZ is the trainee. His trainer, Mr. Sulo Minkinen, is showing Larry how to run a test on a battery charger.

BILL McINTYRE, president of the Vocational Training Club, receives instructions from Mr. Robert Lehman, senior draftsman, in the Wood Conversion Company's engineering department.

KIETH HANSEN'S trainer is Mr. Elmer Liimatainen, assistant foreman of the welding shop at the Northwest Paper Company. He is giving Keith instruction on how to begin welding a flange on a stainless steel elbow.

The electric shop at the Northwest Paper Company is RICHARD WILSON'S training station. One of the men who has taken an active part in training Rick is Mr. Delbert Paarni who was also a trainee in this shop in 1948.

Keypunch operation is one of the jobs that GERRI BUCZYNSKI has spent much of her time learning. Mr. William Kyle is Gerri's on-the-job instructor in the Northwest Paper Company's Data Processing Department.

Mr. Morton Oswald is DARRYL PARK'S trainer at Oswald Motor Company. Darryl's training has given him valuable experience in the business of the auto parts development.

ATHLETICS

Football Team Has Winning Season

The Lumberjack football team rebounded from two losing seasons to post a 5-2-1 record in 1965. The Jacks outscored their opponents 161 to 81 in their nine games, with only Hermantown scoring more than twice against the tough Cloquet defense.

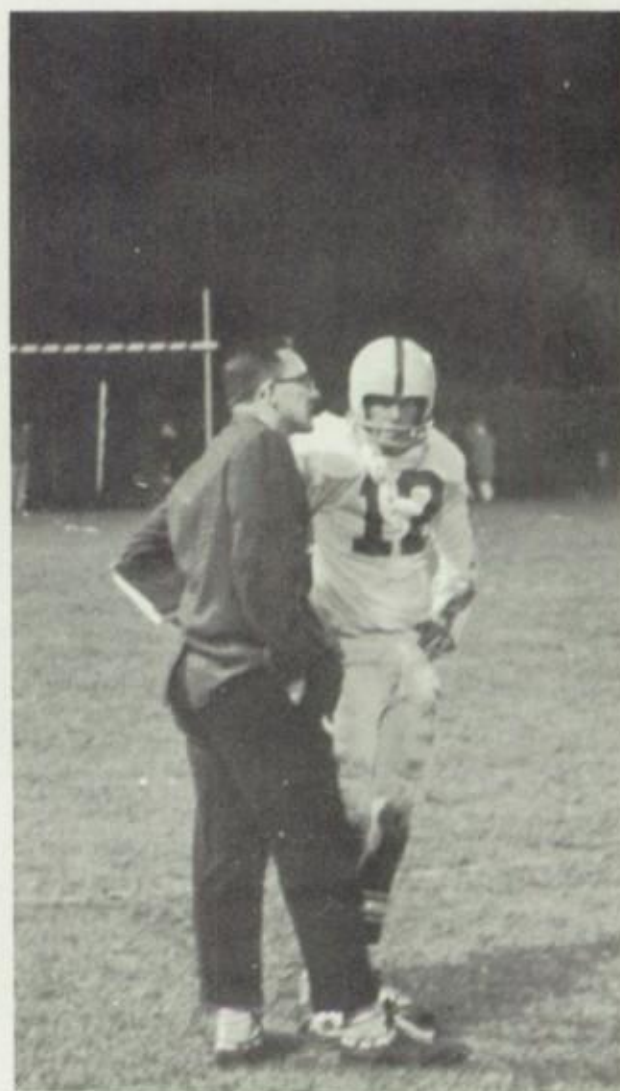

The team opened with a 21-14 loss to powerful Hermantown on September 3. They rebounded to soundly thrash Duluth East, Proctor, and Silver Bay. On October 1, they played their poorest game, as Grand Marais upset the Jacks 14-6. On October 3, they played a scoreless tie with Two Harbors.

From then on, the team poured it on. They convincingly defeated Duluth powers Denfeld and Morgan Park and ran over Aitkin 28-7 to end their season. As a result, the CHS gridders were ranked as the ninth best team in the Tri-State area by the Duluth News-Tribune.

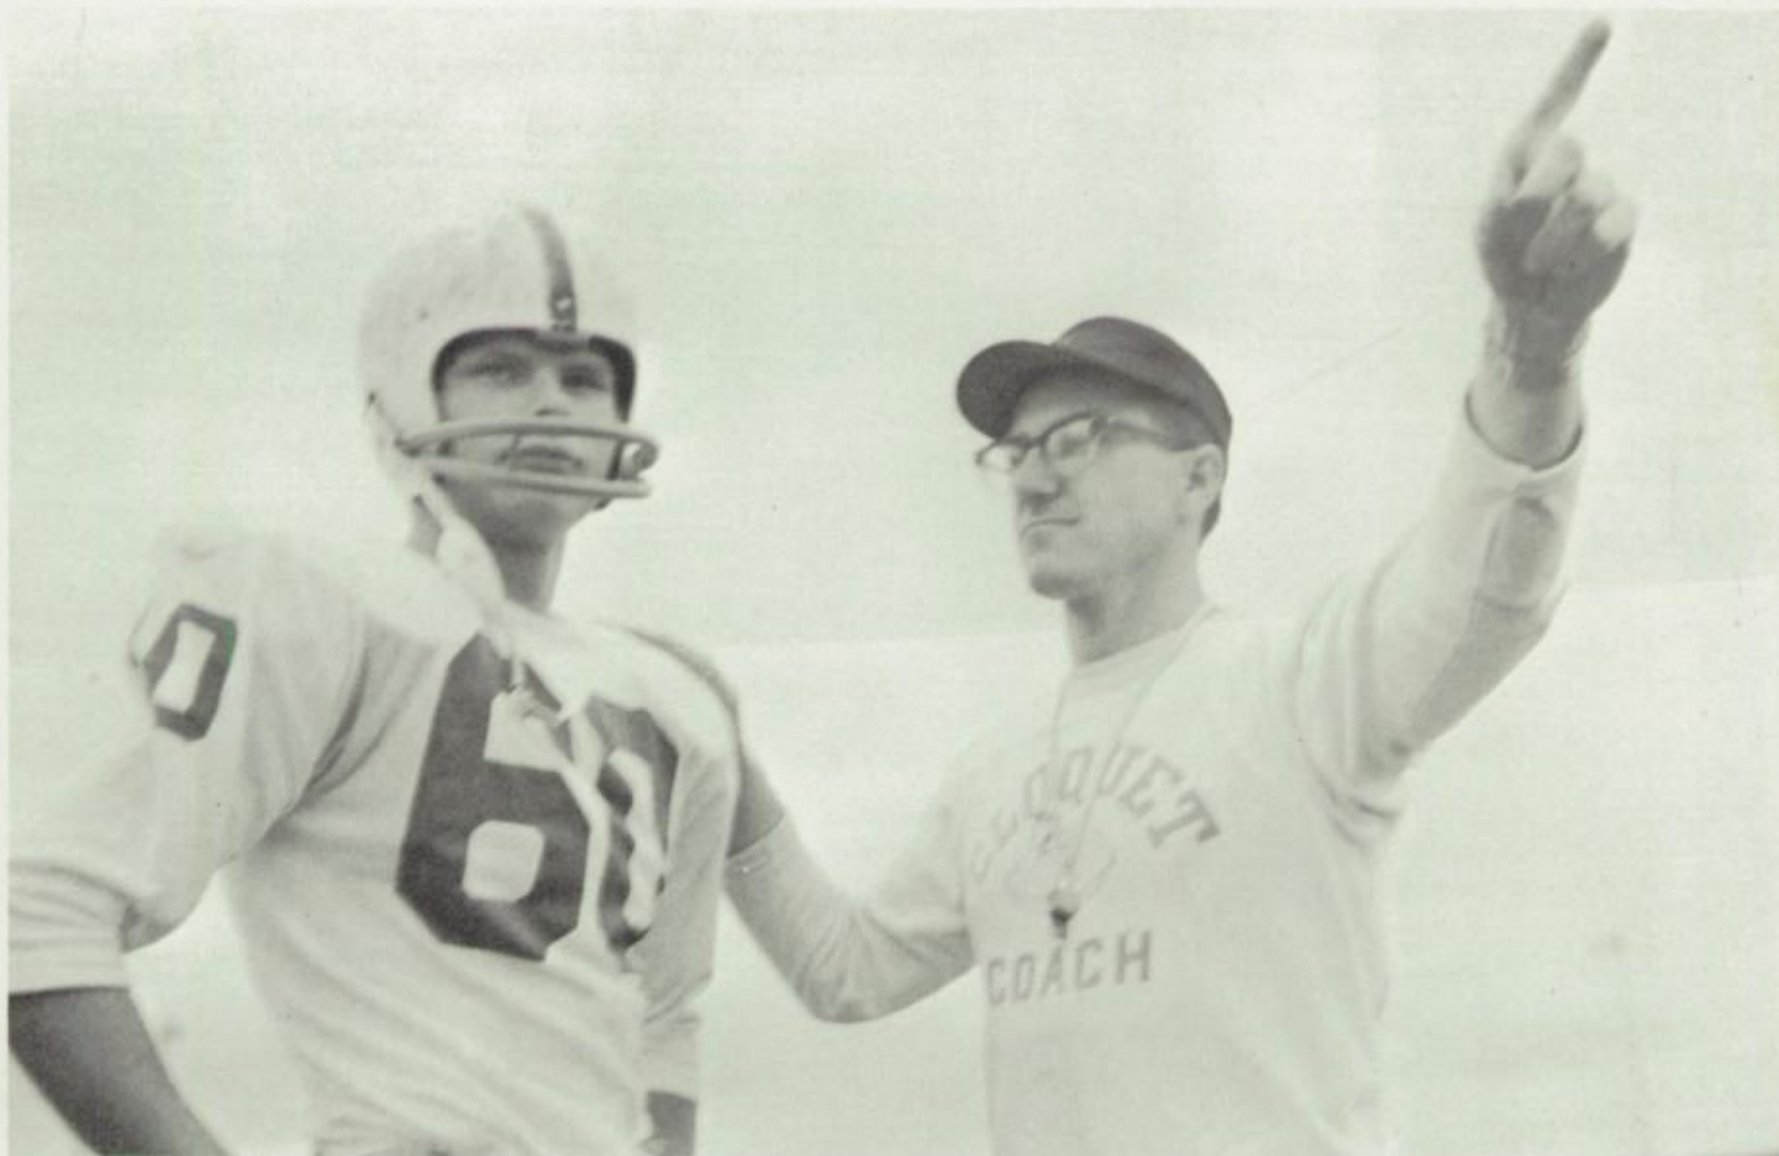

The offense, led by quarterback Ken Young, was veteran and versatile. The running game was led by the team's leading scorer, Craig Pollard, the passing game by end Steve Sjoblad, and the line by captain-guard Lee Bloomquist.

The rugged defense was headed by end Doots Abraham, tackle Lee Bloomquist, linebacker Gordy Ahlgren, and back Ken Young.

Although many seniors will be sorely missed, many returning underclassmen, especially in the backfield, promise to give CHS a very tough football team in 1966 and years to come.

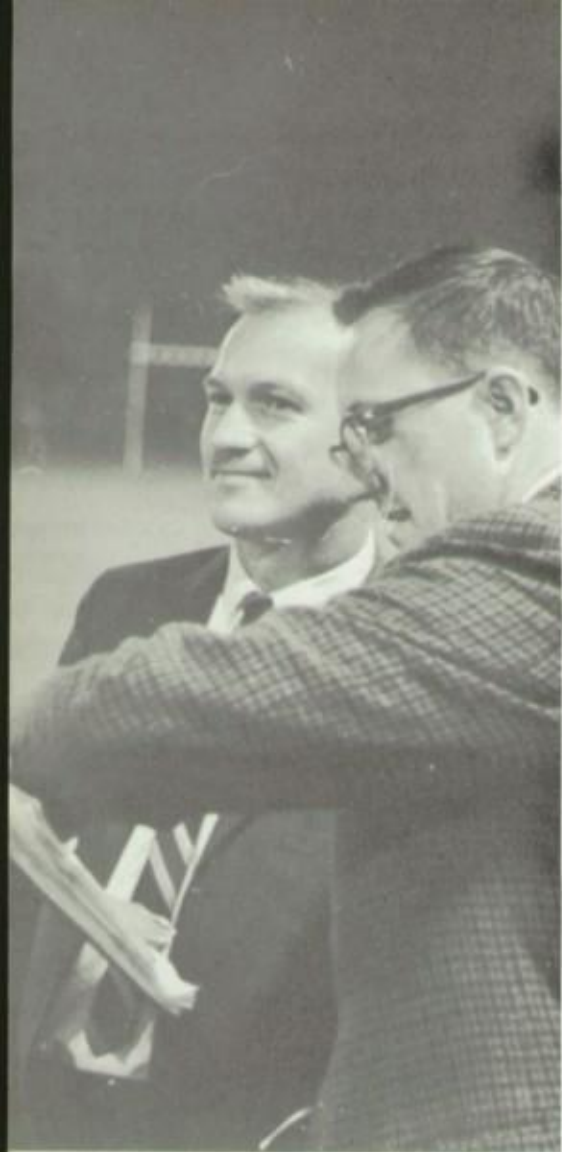

Kenny and the coach plan their strategy.

Harriers Continue Improvement

Led by Captain Dave Quinn and under the direction of coach Norman Sprenger, the 1965-66 Cross Country team was one of the best in C.H.S. history. The team participated in various meets and compiled an over-all record of 24 wins and 38 defeats. The high point of the season was reached when the team finished eighth out of eighteen teams in the Swain Memorial Meet in Duluth.

Lettermen for the year were Dave and Don Quinn, Captain-elect Jim Minkinen, Chet Lake, and Tom Gillespie. Other seniors who participated were Jerry Dion, Mike Burgraff, Duane Johnson, Wayne Fjalstad, and Charlie Jensen.

Young, Inexperienced Cloquet

Concentration—that's the name of the game for Coach Bourdeau.

Faced with a massive rebuilding job, the '65-'66 CHS hockey team, coached by Mr. Bourdeau, compiled an acceptable 7-11-3 record and gave real promise for the future.

The team opened with several tough opponents, losing by close scores to Virginia, Duluth East, and Duluth Cathedral, and tying Two Harbors and Aurora Hoyt Lakes. The Cloquet pucksters then soundly defeated Superior Cathedral, Silver Bay, and Hermantown.

After a loss, a win, and a tie, the Jacks lost heartbreaking 3-2 games to Superior and Minneapolis Cooper, the latter one in overtime. After losing to Duluth Central and Morgan Park, they rebounded to defeat Proctor, Two Harbors, and Superior Cathedral. The team finished the regular season with close losses to Duluth Denfeld and Superior.

Because of their 5-4-1 conference record, good enough for fifth place out of nine teams, the CHS pucksters drew fourth-place Denfeld for its opening game in the District Tournament. On February 8, the Jacks fell 1-0 in a heartbreaking defeat to the Hunters. All-conference goalie Bruce Plante played an excellent game, as did the whole team.

The team used good stickhandling and a lot of hustle to make up for their inexperience: the team consisted of one senior, six juniors, six sophomores, and two freshmen. With so many returning lettermen, the future looks very bright for CHS hockey.

Swimmers Are Third in District

Mr. Mandery gives the word to Captain Wayne Fjalstad.

Cloquet High School recorded its greatest swimming season in the team's seven year history, as the mermen worked their way to a nine win—one loss record. Under the "animal" leadership of Coach Mandery, the team not only had a highly successful season, but showed much promise for the next few years, as a very active junior high program continued through its second year.

Individually, the Jack mermen broke four single event records, and two relay records. Most interesting of all was Jim Savage's effort in the 100 yd. butterfly, breaking a record that had stood for four years.

Because of the able leadership of a dedicated coach and determined team spirit, this historic season may be a prelude to a superb swimming program at Cloquet.

Cheerleaders Promote School Spirit

The job of the five CHS cheerleaders is to lead school spirit and promote good sportsmanship at athletic contests and pep fests. Under the guidance of their advisor, Miss Steinhaus, they practiced hard, worked well together, and very successfully represented our school. Their cheering for football, hockey, basketball, and swimming contributed to numerous victories and successful records for these teams.

This year's squad recorded two cheerleading firsts. They became the first squad to wear the new striped-sweater uniform, and they were the first squad to consist entirely of juniors. The five girls are: Marianne Heine, Kathy Mell, Linda Ekholm, Darlene Edman, and Kathy Lindstrom.

Skiers Take

Under the able guidance of Mr. Nowak, the CHS ski team cruised through another season, winning both the district and state tournaments.

With a veteran squad the Lumberjacks rolled over their nearest competitor, Duluth East, to win the district. Tim Schilling took first place in jumping, while Dennis Nelson copped first in the cross country event.

In the largest state meet ever held, Cloquet set a new scoring record of 290.16 points while running away from the rest of the field. After placing third in the slalom event, the Jacks cruised through jumping and cross-country on the second day of the meet to win easily. As if to show Cloquet's balance, two different Jacks took first places this time: Rick Nelson in jumping and Dave Quinn in cross country.

In addition to these honors, Cloquet qualified six boys in the Central U.S. Championships for the Nationals held in Winter Park, Colorado. These were Dave Quinn, Don Quinn, and Dennis Nelson in cross country; Rick Nelson and Tim Schilling in jumping; and Butch Quinn in the combined event.

Lumberjack Cagers Finish Second in District

The CHS basketball team completed another outstanding season in 1965-1966, finishing with a 16-5 record. Coach Ben Trochlil led his charges to a second place finish in the Big Ten and the runner-up position in the District 26 Tournament.

Some of the team's more impressive victories were over District 24 Champion Crosby-Ironton and Wisconsin sub-sectional winner Superior.

Two of Cloquet's losses were to state runner-up Duluth East, in what the Greyhound coach rated as his team's best games up to that time. Two others were to powerful Hermantown, including one that went into two overtimes. The other loss was to Region 8 powerhouse Bemidji.

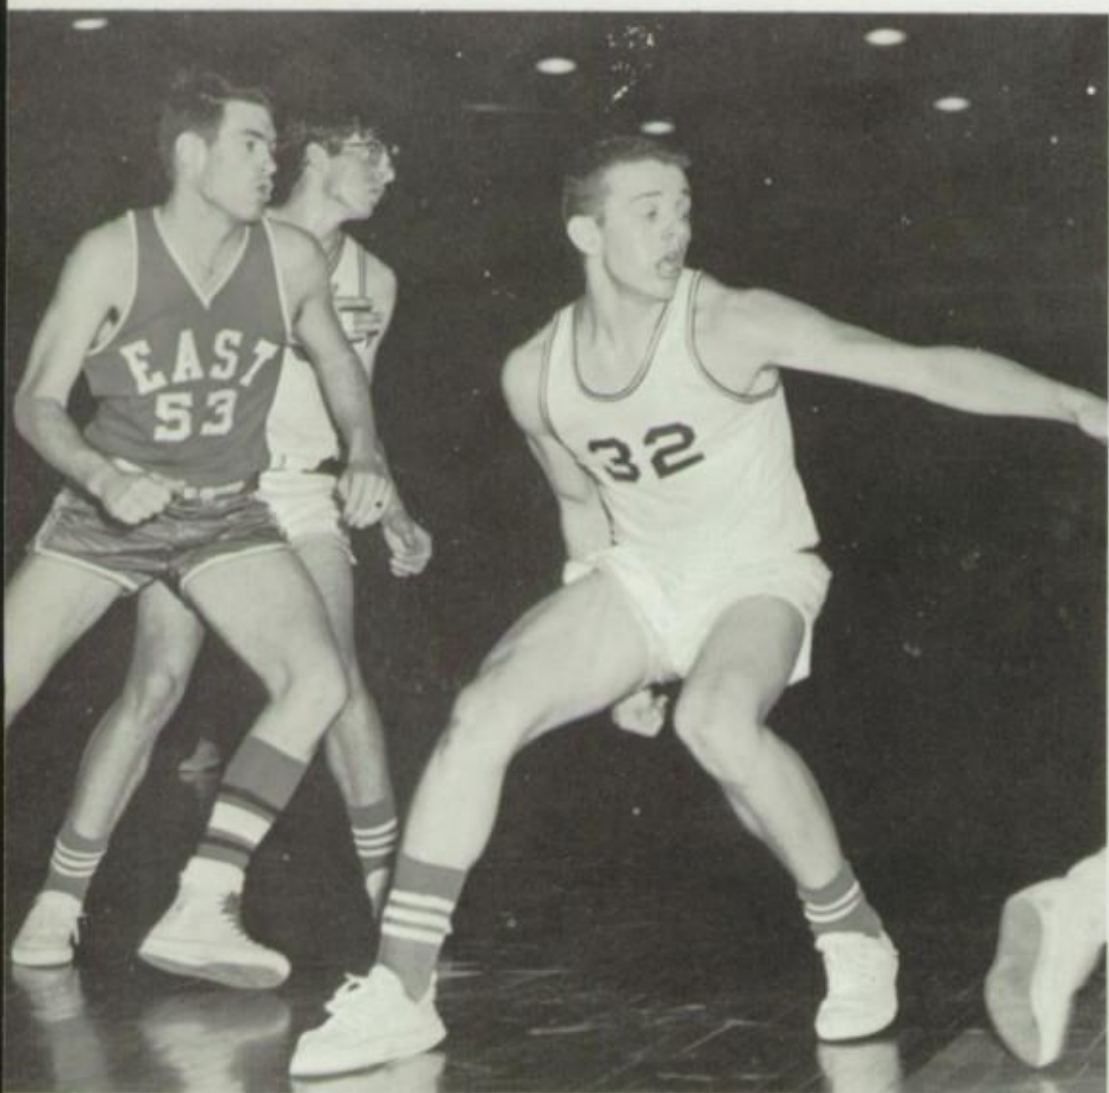

In the District Tournament, the Lumberjacks bounced back from a 17-point third quarter deficit to spill Silver Bay 67-61 in the opening round. In the semi-finals, the team played one of its best games of the season, defeating Grand Marais 76-55. In the finals, the Jacks fell to Duluth East 69-44.

Gary Bodie led the team in scoring with a 12.5 average. Jack Hagen and Charlie Jensen also averaged over 11 points a game. Six players averaged at least 8.1, illustrating the team's balance and depth. Gary Bodie and Charlie Jensen led the team in a new Cloquet strength, rebounding.

With only five players graduating and fine performances by the B- and C- teams, Cloquet is guaranteed of outstanding basketball in the years to come.

Queen Bonnie and King Mike at Homecoming's climax.

Homecoming Highlights Athletic Year

The coronation of Queen Bonnie Meisner and King Mike Fortune climaxed the exciting 1966 Homecoming week.

Activities began on an enthusiastic Lumberjack Day, Wednesday, Feb. 2, when the twenty-four king and queen candidates were introduced at a convocation. Masters of Ceremonies Coolie Oswald and Tom Hanson had revealing stories from the candidates' past, and races and games to surprise the candidates and amuse the audience. The highlight of this spirited convo was when 6' 4" Charlie Jensen broke the pogo stick in the pogo stick race. The beard growing contest was also climaxed on Lumberjack Day with Dave Brunner declared the winner.

At the convocation on Friday the candidates entered through a big red heart, and stood in a formation of a heart awaiting the announcement. Applause and cheers filled the gym as Bonnie and Mike were announced the 1966 Royalty.

The coronation that night was especially impressive. 1965 Royalty Biz Allen and Jon Abraham, the crownbearers, and the 22 attendants preceded the royalty to the throne as the band played March of the Brave. The music stopped and then began again as Queen Bonnie and King Mike entered to a standing ovation. After the coronation ceremony and the singing of the school hymn, the royalty descended to watch the victorious Two Harbors basketball game. Homecoming activities concluded after the game at the annual Homecoming Dance.

Royalty and Junior Royalty await the coronation.

Golfers Place Second in District

The golf team, under the coaching of Mr. Gerlach and captain Jerry Kajander, had another successful season with a record of 28-3-1. The Jacks lost only to last year's state champion North Branch, Greenway and Two Harbors during the regular season. They placed second in the District 26 tourney despite a bad day. Co-medalist Jim Arbuckle and Charlie Jensen qualified for the Region 7 tournament where Charlie Jensen tied for third and earned a berth in the state tourney for the third straight year. The team will lose four lettermen this year, but with Jim Arbuckle, Mark Rosen, and Tom Lavan returning next year, the Jacks will have a veteran team.

Tennis Team Rebuilds Successfully

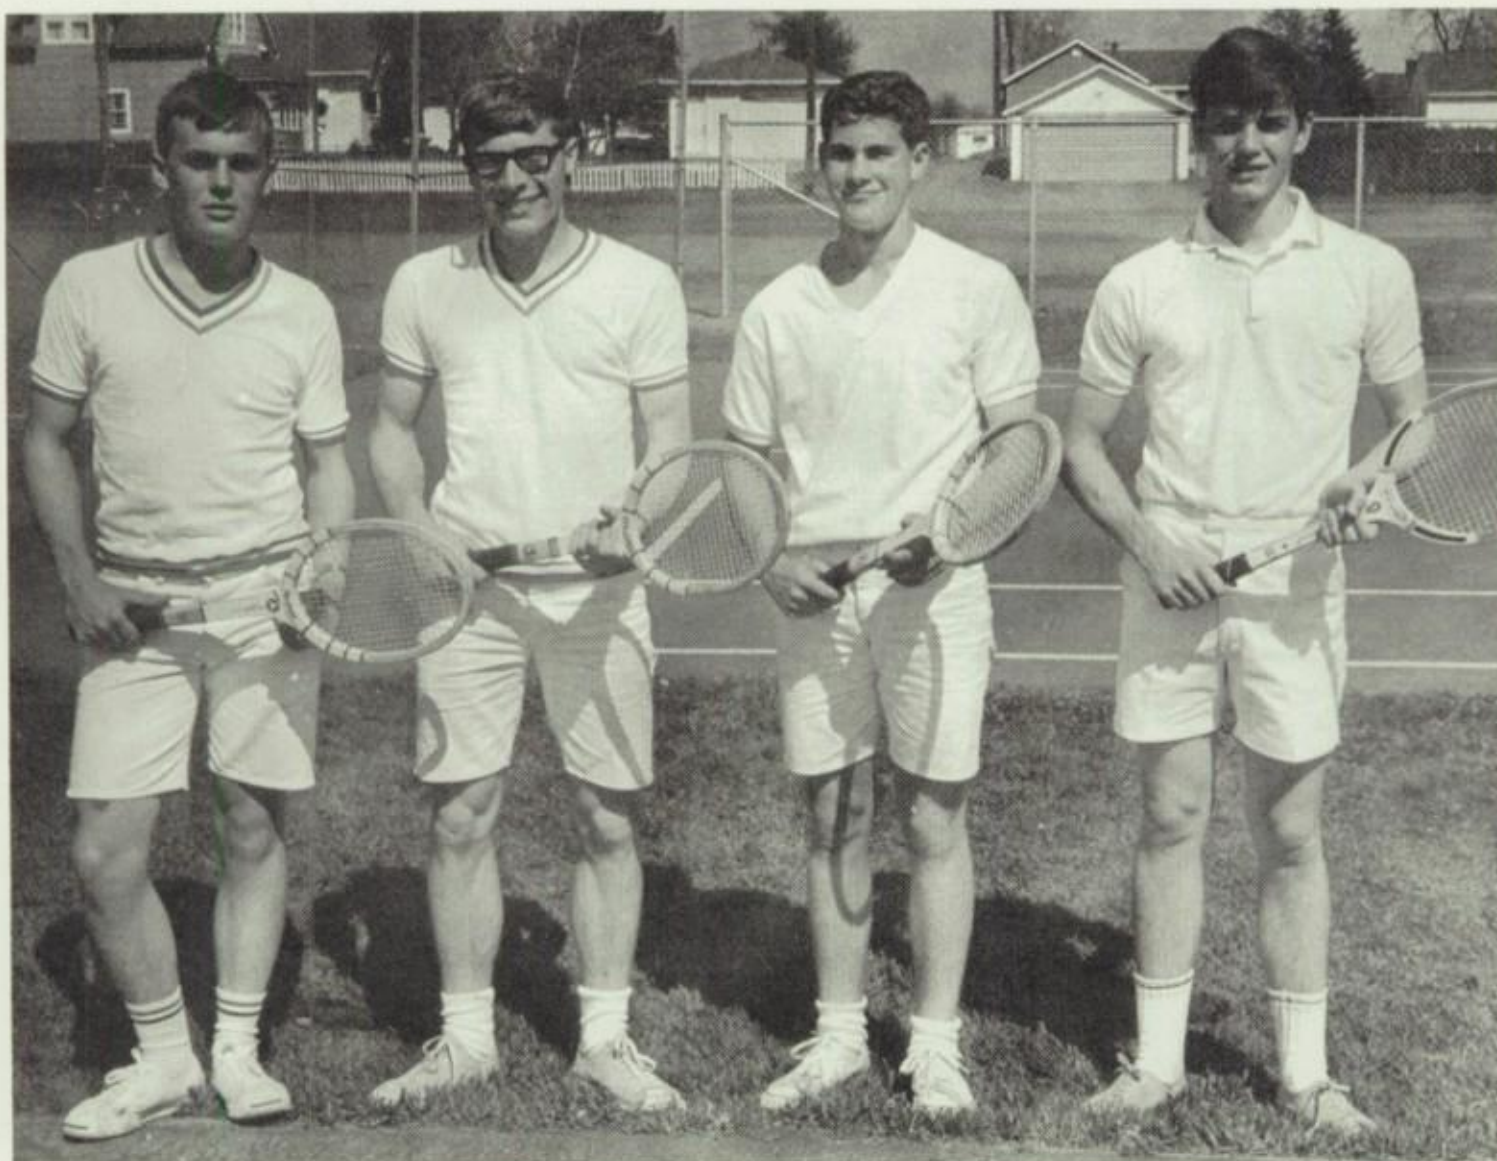

Hindered by bad weather, inexperience, and numerous cancellations, the tennis team, coached by Mr. Ray Dolan, experienced a year marked by one win, two losses, and one tie.

The girls' team had three returning lettermen—Mandy Pelkonen in doubles, and Joyce Roy and Pam Stillwell in singles—with the addition of Barb Maslowski, also in doubles. Undergoing a complete turnover, the boys' team was composed of newcomers Scott Newby and Peter Polga in singles, and Jeff Bergin and Randy Rimstad in doubles.

Because of an opportune cancellation at the District, Scott Newby and Peter Polga in doubles were allowed to advance to the Regional on May 31. The girls' season ended with the district meet, where Pam Stillwell placed second, Joyce Roy third, and the girls' doubles team second.

Baseball Team Has Victorious Season

Mike Fortune

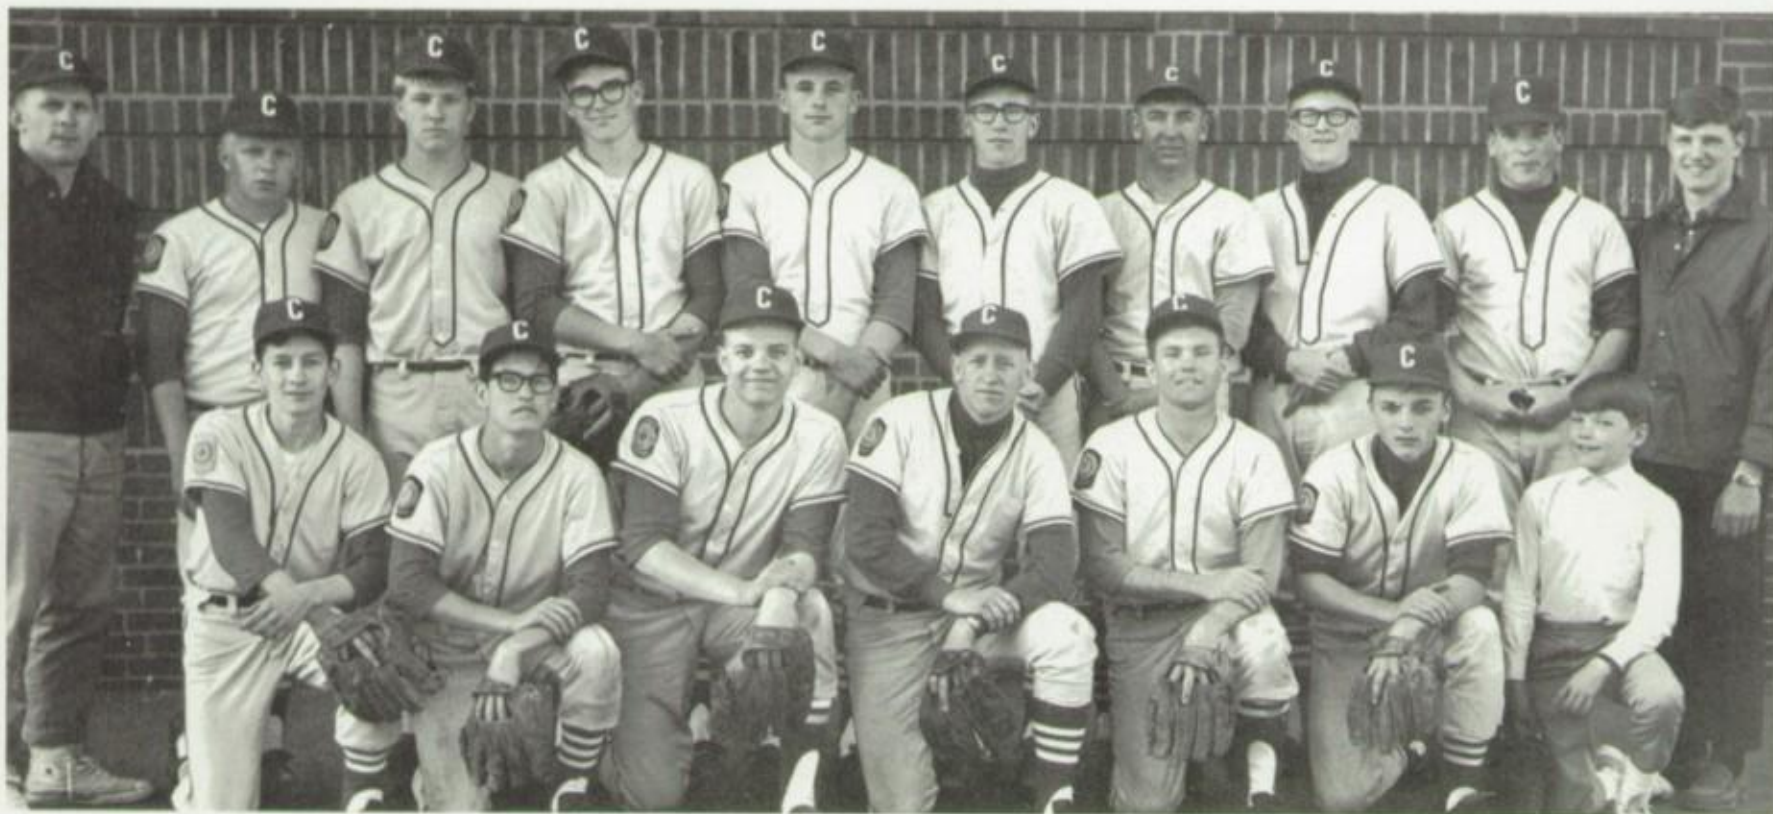

1965-66 was a year of ups and downs for the CHS baseball team. After being tagged as the pre-season Big Ten favorite, the Lumberjacks were upset 8-7 by Duluth Central in the season opener. The Jacks proceeded to chalk up impressive victories over Duluth Cathedral and East, but on May 14, the team had an average 4-3 record.

The Jacks came back to win their last five games, four of them shutouts, and outscore their opponents 23-3. One of the victories was a 9-0 trouncing of Silver Bay, when Gary Bodie held the Mariners hitless. The victory string enabled the Jacks to tie the Duluth East for the conference championship with a 5-2 mark.

The drive was stopped in the opening round of the District Tournament on May 27, when Silver Bay surprised Cloquet 6-2. The tournament loss gave the Lumberjacks a season record of 9-4.

Mr. Bourdeau coached the team through the first part of the season, but had to resign his post for health reasons. Mr. Trochlil then took over for the last half of the year.

880-Yard Relay Squad Heads Track Team's Victories

The CHS track team had an "off" year in 1966. With very few veterans on the squad, the Lumberjacks did not show up as well as they have in other years.

One exception came in Cloquet's traditional strength, the 880-yard relay team. Bill St. Clair, Mick Maslowski, Ted Gilson, and Larry Johnson composed this year's team, which accounted for Cloquet's two points at the Doc Savage Carnival, and their four points at the Big Ten Meet.

At the Sub-District Tournament, Cloquet ended in a tie for fifth, and qualified ten individuals and both relay teams for the District.

At the District Tournament, Cloquet took sixth place and qualified the 880-yard relay team and high-hurdler Steve Sjoblad for the Regional, where the relay team finished second.

With a large number of young trackmen and Cloquet's outstanding facilities, the CHS track team shows great promise for years to come.

Girls' Rifle Team Second in State

Mr. Stapleton and Gloria check the target.

The girls' rifle team had another successful year under the direction of Coach John Stapleton. After competition with various boys' teams and intra-squad competition, the girls attended the regional meet in March and took first place. Erlana Skarp also won Legion individual honors with a total of 347. At the state meet in April the girls lost their only match of the season to Rochester by only 25 points.

During the 1965-66 season two girls broke CHS records. Erlana Skarp and Jane Bottila broke the girls' record with 356 and 355 respectively. Jane Bottila also tied the girls' prone record with a 99 and the girls' sitting record with a 96. Letter winners for the season were Captain Gloria Golden, Jane Bottila, Sue Medes, Margie Korpi, Sue Anderson, and Erlana Skarp.

Boy Shooters Are Region Champs

The boys' rifle team had another outstanding season climaxed by regaining their Regional title. Under the leadership of Coach John Stapleton and captains Corky LeeJoice and Neil Lavick, the team compiled a 6-1 record.

Two teams, composed of four members each, placed fourth and fifth in the state meet at Rochester. The team of Corky LeeJoice, Neil Lavick, Rick Wilson and Byron Korby placed fourth; and Phil Louma, Ted Gilson, Ken Soumanen, and Jim Price took fifth.

Outstanding individual performances were turned in by Neil Lavick and Ken Soumanen who both tied the prone record of 100.

Sno-Ball

Colorful wall figures, snowflakes, tinsel, and Christmas tree decorated the Washington School gym Wednesday, December 29, for the 18th annual Sno-Ball. Red and white carnation corsages and baby rose boutonnieres were presented to the couples as they entered the traditional holiday dance sponsored by the senior girls.

One-Hundred-Eighty-Five Couples

The Junior-Senior Prom is always the greatest highlight of the school year. For the juniors, it is the excitement of transforming the empty gym into a dream. The juniors had every right to be proud of their oriental world of enchantment, Teahouse of the August Moon. Under the leadership of decoration chairman Darlene Edman they fashioned an enchanting theme, complete with a rotating wind chime, oriental lanterns, bridges and fortune cookies! Their especially entertaining program included a hilarious "geisha girl" skit, a beguiling oriental dance by Cheryl Mac Connache and Carol Brattlof, and a vocal duet, Sukiyaki, by Laurie Russ and LeAnn Weatherson. Students danced to the music of the versatile "Classics" and everyone enjoyed a memorable evening in the Teahouse of the August Moon.

Hypnotist Holds a Captive Audience at Calypso Party

"Viva Calypso" made the Kiwana Post Prom party an overwhelming success. Decorations chairman Pat Rizzi and sub-chairmen Cheryl Edwards, Kathy Kunze, Larry Oswald, Linda Parks, Kathy Fulton and Laurie Brattlof headed the seniors who transformed the armory into a gay Latin American holiday.

Couples arrived for a delicious meal at 1:00. Fun for the night was highlighted by hypnotist Ed Baron who completely captivated the audience. His subjects performed hilarious antics such as butterfly chasing and piano playing, and kept everyone laughing for an hour and a half. Then dancing to the Talk-Abouts and a breakfast topped off the all night party.

Kid Day Capers Create Chaos

At the Kid Day program Friday, May 26, seniors were allowed to go through their second childhood. Tom Hanson was Master of Ceremonies for this wild, hilarious convocation. The program began with a spirited rendition of "I've Been Working on the Railroad" by the talented Kindergarten Band, the entire Senior Class. Several groups then presented their acts. Sixteen lovely Hawaiian girls danced the hula to "Little Grass Shack." The "Babes," dressed in ruffled pants, bibs and bonnets, sang and danced to "So Long, Farewell." A group of boys also presented a skit entitled "From Ambition to Reality."

The yearbook was dedicated to Miss Avis Setnes, Senior Counselor. Miss Johnson, secretary to Mr. Wolner, was also honored at this convocation.

Although there was barely time to change out of Kid Day costumes, seniors enthusiastically boarded buses for Jay Cooke Park immediately after the Kid Day convocation. They took advantage of the beautiful weather and played baseball, went for hikes, climbed the rocks, and fell in the river. The picnickers were served salmon and meat loaf, potato salad, beans, rolls, and pop. Their only regret was that they couldn't stay all day.

Baccalaureate—"Be Still And Know."

Rev. Blom and his flock review the sermon text.

The activities of graduation paused for a solemn note, Sunday night, May 29, the Baccalaureate Service. Pastor Arnold Blom's message "Be Still and Know" was inspirational advice for the graduating seniors. His message reminded seniors of the responsibilities of the future. Special music was provided by the Girls' Choir and by Faith Spurlin, soprano soloist, accompanied by Linda Turtinen. The processional and recessional were played by Mr. Gordon Nelson.

Tim Lovain and Avis Setnes set up their CHS Newsstand at the Hotel Duluth Ballroom on May 31. The Senior Banquet, one of the most memorable of the senior activities, featured a buffet-style dinner, speakers, and entertainment centered around magazines as a theme.

Representing Rostrum magazine Tim Lovain served as master of ceremonies for the evening. Mr. Wolner and Mr. Gessner reminisced and wished seniors the best for the future. Speakers representing their various grade schools were Kathy Fulton, Tom Gillespie, Peg Bernicke, Phil Fernjack, Margie Bailey, Maureen Welter, and Jackie Annis. Their publications on file included Ladies' Home Journal, Sports Afield, Catholic Digest, and True Confessions. Nancy Nelson from Mad reminisced junior high, Playboy reporter Ken Young revived memories of sophomore and junior years, and Kewpie Jensen from Seventeen reviewed our senior year.

Representing Downbeat, Linda Turtinen sang "Ebb Tide" and accompanied herself on the piano. Dow Jones and the Industrials presented two rousing pop tunes.

An appropriate representative, Kathy Hulten, from Brownie Handbook presented Mr. Wolner with a vase of dimes from the seniors on his 25th wedding anniversary. Miss Setnes then reviewed for us her MEA Journal. The program concluded with the Senior Singers who reviewed our years in song.

Graduation—The Final Farewell to CHS

The transformation from seniors to alumni of Cloquet High School came for 223 members of the class of 1966 on June 3. To the traditional Pomp and Circumstance, the class in their robes and roses, marched into the packed gym.

Reverend Bertil Lovain pronounced the invocation and benediction; Tim Lovain, class president, spoke for the seniors; and Harold Shimmin, class speaker, revisited El Dorado 66. Music was provided by pianist Linda Turtinen and a trumpet quartet, Jeff Bergin, John Tamminen, Bill St. Clair and Byron Korby.

Below: A last farewell to C.H.S.

As Stevenson (and Shimmin) said in El Dorado, "We come to the end of nothing here below." Nothing except annuals and school years and happy days. These do end, but a book like ours helps to remind everyone of good times and bad. The good are made up for me of people in the class of sixty-six—these four and many more—wandering in the sunshine in search of exactly the right tree to be on our title page.

So something does end. You go on to college, jobs, the service, marriage—something to take the place of school. For me there is next year; another class, another book.

G. G.
